FORMS of PROCEDURE and TABLE of FEES for the Court of Police for the City of Edinburgh, and adjoining districts.

Which forms of procedure and table of fees are established by his Majesty's Sheriff-depute of the county of Edinburgh, and the Lord Provost and Magistrates of the City of Edinburgh, with the advice and approbation of the Lord President of the Court of Session, and Lord Justice-Clerk, in terms of the act of the 45th year of the reign of his Majesty George III. intituled, "An act for regulating the "Police of the City of Edinburgh, and the adjoining districts, and for other purposes relating "thereto.

FORMS OF PROCEDURE.

1mo, The person in custody of the constable or watchmen, to be brought before the Judge, and the complaint or cause of apprehension to be stated as directed in article 5.

2do, The examination of the offender and witnesses to be taken instante, viva voce.

3tio, The Judge to determine and decide upon the case, de plano, or to delay procedure for twenty-four hours, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, if he shall think fit to comply with the desire either of the complainer or defender to that effect; and the defender to obtain a copy of the complaint if required.

4to, In bailable offences, the offender may apply for and be admitted to bail as soon as the examination is concluded, and the amount thereof shall be at the direction of the Judge, agreeably to the statute 39, Geo. III. cap. 49.

5to, All complaints shall be made either in writing, or in printed forms, having the names of the parties and grounds of complaint filled up in writing, in as few words as possible.

6to, The judgment shall be engrossed upon the complaint, and subscribed by the Judge.

7mo, Where the case is not determined at the first hearing, the party complained upon may be committed to jail, kept in custody, admitted to bail, or appointed to appear at the after hearings, according as the circumstances of the case may require.

8vo, The Clerk to keep an exact list of all the cases determined, with an abstract of the sentences.

9no, The complaints and Judgments thereon to be kept as a Record in terms of the Act, and certified copies to be given by the Clerk, either wholly in writing or partly printed.

10mo, When sentence is pronounced, execution is to follow in terms of the Act.

11mo, When the party offending is absent, and no bail found, warrant may be granted upon the complaint to apprehend him and bring him before the Judge, to answer to the matters therein contained, as also to summon witnesses, and if the witnesses fail to attend, a second warrant to be granted for apprehending and detaining them till examined, or till caution is found for their appearance.

12mo, If the Judge shall deem it unnecessary or improper to grant warrant for apprehension, he may grant warrant to summon the offender to appear at an appointed time, and on his failing to attend, may then either issue his warrant for apprehension, or proceed to take evidence, and give judgment in the case.

13*th*o, The Constable or Officer, when summoning, requires no witnesses. His written return of the execution shall be held to be sufficient evidence thereof.

14*th*o, In cases where bail has been found, either to appear at a certain diet, or to appear when notice is given to the party or cautioner, and no appearance is made, the Judge may declare the bail bond forfeited, and the money recovered in consequence thereof, is to go to the fund for fines, or to the private party for damages, or part each purpose, after deducting what is necessary for defraying the expences, according to the nature of the complaint, and as the Judge may determine. The money to be recovered in the same way as fines or damages themselves would be recoverable.

15*th*o, Every public outrage, every theft, robbery, or depredation, every obstruction or nuisance, or breach of cleanliness, and every imposition or overcharge in articles under the cognisance of the Act before referred to, are to be deemed public offences, and to be prosecuted by the Inspectors of the bounds.
